Special Presentations/Recognitions

IPSF Update

CEO Neda Zaengle reported that $484,955 had been raised in response to the Five Week Campaign to mitigate the impacts of large class sizes. She expressed appreciation to the community for their support and extended a special thanks to Irvine's high school students for their work on the upcoming "iJam" event on May 23, from 2:00-8:00 p.m., at Irvine Stadium which will feature live music and entertainment.

Irvine Unified Council PTA Update

PTA Council President Steffanie Early reported that County PTA leaders will travel to Sacramento on March 22-23 to demand no more cuts to education. During a similar trip in April, Irvine high school students will make the trek to deliver the same message. Early advised that executive board elections were being held this month and that state-wide PTAs were busy collecting signatures for a ballot measure to lower the threshold to pass a parcel tax from two-thirds to 55 percent.

Oral Communication

ITA President Rick Seibert reported that the contract with ITA had been ratified by its members, with 93% voting in favor.

Student Board Member Reports

Student Members Bran, Sadlik, Salzman and Searl reported on school activities.

Superintendent's Report

Superintendent Gross expressed appreciation to IPSF for their fund raising efforts and thanked ITA President Rick Seibert for his leadership. She reported that Astounding Inventions winners, Evan Kim and Maria Webster, would appear on "The Tonight Show" on March 17. Congratulations were extended to nine NHS students who won first place honors at the 2010 Student Television Network Convention. Highlights of the Stonegate Dedication held on March 10 were shared, and appreciation was extended to the PTA Council for their support for staff and parents to attend Daniel Pink's Arts education presentation on March 15. All were invited to attend the upcoming Service-Learning Share Fair on May 18, and kudos were extended to PIO Ian Hanigan and Webmaster Shane Cline for the successful launch of "IUSD Newsflash" a web-based application designed to provide breaking news and information about IUSD.

Items of Business

(Written reports were included with the agenda and are on file in the District Office.)

2010-11 Budget Reductions/Adjustments

Assistant Superintendent Lisa Howell provided an update on state budget talks, advising there has been no action on Education for several months. She reviewed the recommended budget reductions/adjustments for 2010-11 totaling $19, 882,327, and responded to questions from the Board.

The Board discussed the negative impacts of class size increases, reduced allocations for materials/supplies, and adjustments to writing instruction. Staff advised that options for assessment platforms were being explored. Art, Science and Music reductions were clarified, with no cuts to science, which will be funded from IRWD easement monies for at least three years.

The Board requested staff to review all revenue enhancement and cost savings ideas submitted by the public and determine the most viable for consideration. Howell reiterated the need to plan for another "Fair Share" contribution from Basic Aid districts and to keep pressure on the legislature regarding inadequate funding.

On the motion of Member Kuwabara, seconded by Member McInerney and carried 5-0, the Board approved the recommended 2010-11 Budget Reductions/ Adjustments, as revised. These reductions are necessary to meet the Irvine Unified School District's fiscal obligation delineated in the 2009-10 Second Interim Report & Multi-Year Projections.

Second Interim Report of 2009-10 (AB 1200, Chapter 1213, Statutes of 1991)

Assistant Superintendent Howell reviewed the Second Interim Report certifying the District's ability to meet its multi-year financial commitments. Based on the Governor's proposals for the 2010-11 January budget, Howell projected a $17.5 million shortfall in 2011-12, which may require additional reductions, pending changes in the May Revise.

The Board discussed the impacts of special education costs and revenue enhancement options including the use of redevelopment funds.

On the motion of Member McInerney, seconde

Related Findings and Determination (Level 2 & 3 Fees)

Assistant Superintendent Howell introduced Larry Ferchaw, Dolinka Group, who reviewed the legal requirements to levy Level 2 and 3 alternative school facility fees on new residential construction.

On the motion of member McInerney, seconded by Member Parham and carried 5-0, the Board, after holding
